Sicily & Apulia Tour

OCT 1 - OCT 13, 2026

Get ready for an unforgettable adventure through two of Italy's most captivating regions—Sicily and Puglia. From the golden cathedrals of Palermo to the sun-drenched olive groves of the Itria Valley, this journey blends ancient history, breathtaking scenery, and authentic local flavours.

We'll walk the lively streets of Palermo, gaze at the stunning mosaics of Monreale, and step back in time among the ruins of Agrigento's Valley of the Temples. Then it's on to Sicily's sparkling east coast, with charming Syracuse and the seaside beauty of Taormina—plus a special visit to the slopes of Mount Etna for a wine tasting you'll never forget.

Crossing into Puglia, we'll slow down among ancient olive trees, explore the iconic whitewashed villages of Ostuni and Alberobello, and savour the region's world-famous food and wine. Along the way, we'll dive into the history of Matera's ancient cave dwellings and soak in the seaside charm of Polignano a Mare.

Thoughtfully paced with time to linger, savour, and connect, this journey is perfect for travellers who love history, culture, incredible food—and a little dolce vita along the way.
